

Air 1 serves me in my community as a positive influence in my life. It helps me to be a better person. This station will and has effected my local community by helping others bring a positive outlook to their own lives. Keeping Air 1 would and is in the public's best interest because it serves as a way to listen to some good music while driving around, sitting at home, or trying to get to know the Lord better.

Thank you.